Keytone Notes

The P.T.A. held its regular meeting at the Carson street school Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. E. C. Roque presided. The meeting opened with all singing "The Star Spangled Banner." Mrs. Fred Carter was appointed chairman of the hospitality committee. Mrs. Gorky on the emergency committee. Mrs. Barth as auditor, and Mrs. Walfenberger, Mrs. Hilbert and Mrs. Barch on the program committee. A recitation was given by Arle Temple, and a solo by Fern Stevens, accompanied by Evelyn Hillpert. After the meeting adjourned tea and wafers were served and a social hour was enjoyed. About ninety people were present at the Keystone Community hall Sunday night. A stereopticon lecture was given for the B. Y. P. U. by Kenneth Powlison, a missionary from Bolivia. A solo by Harry Tranchell and a quartet composed of Fern Stevens, Alice Bartell, Evelyn Hillpert and Arle Temple, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Tranchell, concluded the interesting program. A new bridge is being built across the canal on Carson street.

New Minister Is Welcomed To Torrance

Rev. Essig and Family Are Guests at Reception Held Thursday

A well attended reception was held in honor of Rev. Fred Essig, pastor of the First Methodist church, and family Thursday evening at the parlors of the church, which were beautifully decorated for the occasion. Rev. B. H. Lingenfelter of the Christian church welcomed Rev. Essig on behalf of the churches of Torrance. Rev. Essig and Mrs. Essig responded. The Boy Scouts of Torrance, under the leadership of Roley Margon, put on a demonstration. Mrs. Ralph Crimmings sang "Merrily I Roam," by Schlerffarth. The program follows: Piano duet by Yerna and Margerie Payne; reading, "The Low-Backed Cart," Maxine Brown; vocal solo, "Bells of the Sea," by W. G. Comings. Refreshments were served.

It's Fight to Bitter End, Says Wife, Suing Broadway Beauty for $100,000

Mrs. Katherine McIntyre Frey (above) says she will fight to the bitter end to win her $100,000 suit against Wilda Bennett (below), whom she accuses of stealing the affections of her husband, Charles C. Frey, wealthy turfman. She says she is fighting the battle for wives against actresses who prey upon wealthy men. Miss Bennett firmly denies she is a vampire.

Betty Compson Will Star in Torrance Theatre Program Next Week

Admirers of Adolphe Menjou and Viola Dana will be offered another opportunity of seeing these favorites in "Open All Night" at the Torrance theatre Saturday. The picture is described as a brilliant French farce-comedy, abounding in thrills and humor. Jetta Goudal also appears in "Open All Night"; she is gaining popularity rapidly and is looked upon as star material. A "Fortieth Door" episode will also be shown. Sunday and Monday Betty Compson comes to the Torrance theatre in "The Enemy Sex," which was directed by James Cruze. "Hot Air," a snappy Mermaid comedy, is also billed for these two days.

Word comes from Hollywood of the culmination of two much-talked-of motion picture romances. Betty Compson and James Cruze, and Kenneth Harlan and Marie Prevost. Both couples vowed "Yes, I do" this week. Miss Compson will always be remembered for her brilliant work in that master picture, "The Miracle Man," which overnight made into stars Thomas Meighan, Lon Chaney, and Betty. Lately she has been starring in a series of Paramount pictures of the flapper variety. Her latest is "The Enemy Sex," which was directed by her husband, James Cruze. Cruze is one of Hollywood's best known directors; there is character and finish to all his work. He made "Hollywood," "Ruggles of Red Gap," "To the Ladies," but of course he will always be best remembered for his marvelous epic of pioneer days, "The Covered Wagon."
